

U.S. Seeking a Direct Line to Moscow

GENEVA (AP) — The United States pressed the Soviet Union today for the establishment of a direct permanent communications link between the leaders of the two powers to avoid the risk of war by accident or miscalculation.

U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelton told the 17-nation disarmament talks the Cuban crisis demonstrated the need for improved continuous and reliable communications between the leaders of the two major military powers, the United States and the Soviet Union.

He said the U.S. government "is prepared to act quickly" in setting up a permanent line which could be used both for teletype and voice communications.

He said the American end of the line would be in the National Command Center which maintains continuing contact with the President and his principal assistants.

Thinks Trade Is Jap Question

TOKYO (AP) — Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. said today trade between Japan and Communist China "of course is a question for Japan to decide."

The new U.S. undersecretary of commerce added that the question does not appear to be very important at the present time because "we don't know what you are going to sell them or how they are going to pay for it."

Roosevelt arrived in Tokyo Thursday night to officiate at the opening Tuesday of the new U.S. Trade Center in downtown Tokyo.

Operators of Huge Still Put on Probation

Texarkana — William McKinley Tyree, Negro of Hope, Ark., charged with three counts of liquor law violations, was placed on two years probation yesterday by Judge John E. Miller in Arkansas Federal Court.

A co-defendant, William Harding of near Hope, was placed on temporary probation pending further orders of the court.

Harding and Tyree were charged in connection with a large illicit whiskey still operation near the DeAnn Community. Officers found 1170 gallons of whiskey at the site.

Judge Miller said that he was not satisfied with the facts in the case — that the size of the operation indicated it was financed by somebody who has some money. In other action Thomas Andrew Burns, 19, Hope, charged with possession of untaxed liquor, was placed on two years probation.

Against Using Farm Workers From Mexico

WASHINGTON (AP) — The importation of Mexicans for work on U.S. farms was described today as contributing to the poverty of domestic migrant farm workers.

John L. Fryer, representing the AFL-CIO United Packinghouse, Food and Allied Workers, urged a House Agriculture Subcommittee to let the Mexican Bracero program expire Dec. 31, 1963.

The subcommittee is considering a bill introduced by its chairman, Rep. (E. C. Gathings, D-Ark., to extend the Mexican Farm Labor Program two more years, with easing of restrictions designed to assure that domestic workers are given preference for farm jobs.

The Gathings bill has been endorsed during a three-day hearing by representatives of cotton and vegetable growers, contending there is a continuing need for a supplemental labor supply from below the border.

Fryer contended the availability of Mexican workers has depressed farm wages. While increasing in all other industries, he said wages of farm workers dropped 2 to 3 per cent in the Sacramento and Imperial valleys in California from 1952 to 1959.

Domestic migrants in 1961 averaged $1,054 in total annual wages, he said. The Labor Department has recommended a one-year extension of the Bracero program, with a new requirement that growers seeking to use Mexicans first offer domestics the equivalent allowances for housing, transportation, and occupational insurance.

Says Russia, U.S. at Nuclear Standoff

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has told Congress the United States is entering an era of a nuclear standoff with the Soviet Union—a time when neither can launch a nuclear attack without getting one in return.

But despite that prospect, McNamara declared this country intends to win the cold war and "I believe in a reasonable sense of the word we are winning."

"Our objective," he said, "is to defeat the Communists. I do not believe we can achieve that victory by engaging in a strategic nuclear war. I think that kind of stalemate will become increasingly more controlling with the passage of time."

McNamara dealt with this potential "mutual deterrence" during six days of closed-door hearings which began Feb. 6 before a House Defense Appropriations subcommittee that questioned him about the Pentagon's budget.

A censored transcript of his testimony was made public today.

"In no sense of the word is there Soviet nuclear superiority today," he asserted, "nor is there nuclear parity measured in terms of numbers of weapons."

Regardless of his theory of mutual deterrence, McNamara preferred not to describe it as a stalemate.

"Stalemate implies lack of action and I visualize our military program leading to quite the contrary," he said. "I visualize it leading to action in the foreign policy field."

The American aim is to "advance the cause of freedom throughout the world," he said, "and to do this in a way that protects our own national security, which means we are not prepared to destroy our nation in the process of attempting to advance freedom elsewhere in the world."

During the six days in the witness chair, McNamara ranged over issues of war and peace in the past, present and future.

As for the Cuban crisis, the defense secretary said the administration made no deals with Soviet Premier Khrushchev to get him to withdraw offensive weapons from Cuba last fall.

American nuclear might forced the Kremlin to back down, he said.

"That may be difficult to understand for some, but it is not difficult for me to understand, because we faced that night the possibility of launching nuclear weapons and Khrushchev knew it," McNamara said. "And that is the reason, and the only reason, why he withdrew those weapons."

He also said there is nothing in the U.S. arsenal to match for range—plus mobility—the medium range ballistic missiles the Soviet Union set up in Cuba.

The Air Force is at work on a project to develop a mobile, accurate, light-weight missile that could be carried on trucks, which is the way the Soviet missiles were transported, he said.

The defense secretary said there is no evidence "that the Soviet Union is concerned at the present time with developing in Cuba a capability to strike the United States, no evidence whatsoever."

$640,000 in Jewels Are Stolen

ROME (AP) — Jewels worth $640,000 were reported today to have been stolen from the former Mrs. Harrison Williams, longtime world's best-dressed woman and noted figure in European and New York society.

Police said Mrs. Williams, now Countess Edward von Bismarck, and her 60-year-old fourth husband discovered the loss Thursday when they returned to their Rome apartment from their villa on the Isle of Capri.

Police said the court's butler, Angelo Valentino, 32, is missing. A nationwide alarm went out for him.

Also missing was a gold table service. Its value was not announced.

Police said the jewels, which were insured, include a $48,000 pair of diamond earrings, a $96,000 diamond necklace, an $80,000 heirloom emerald necklace, and two pairs of jeweled earrings worth $241,000.

Police said the butler's wife told in tears of seeing her husband leave with a silver candelabra and a silver bowl while the Von Bismarcks were away.

When he returned, she reproached him, she said, and he told her he had debts to pay.

The butler's wife said she persuaded her husband to return the objects and he left to get them. She said that was the last she saw of him.

The countess, 63, born Mona Strader of Lexington, Ky., was twice divorced when she married Williams in 1926 and honeymooned aboard his huge yacht. She soon became a leader of the international set.

Williams died in 1953. He left 90 per cent of his fortune to his wife.

Von Bismarck, who was born in Belgium, lived in the United States for 20 years prior to his marriage to Mrs. Williams in 1955.

Felt Aid Was Spread Too Thin

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said Thursday he has always felt that U.S. aid money has been "spread too thin; we do too little for too many different countries."

Interviewed on a CBS radio program (Capitol Clock Room), Fulbright said there is "room for reduction" in President Kennedy's $4.9 billion foreign aid program and that he will support some cuts.

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, long a supporter of foreign aid, said he agrees with the presidentially-appointed committee headed by Gen. Lucius D. Clay that the program is "an important one, probably an indispensable one."

But he would not speculate on how much Kennedy will reduce his request. It is reported that the President may ask for $200 million less in a special message Tuesday.

Fulbright said, "I have always supported some cuts. When you are dealing in how many, exactly how much is cut, it is a difficult matter. I think it can be cut some. And I expect to support some cuts."

Publishers, Engravers Meet Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiators for striking photoengravers meet today with the publishers of eight newspapers—the first scheduled contact between the two groups since members of the AFL-CIO Photoengravers Union Local 1 stunned the industry by rejecting settlement terms that their leaders had expected them to accept.

The action by the union, which has 320 members on the papers, prolonged New York's newspaper shutdown, now in its 112th day.

Frank McGowan, president of the New York local, asked for the meeting Thursday, and Mayor Robert F. Wagner—who had come up with the terms that the photoengravers' rank and file rejected—obtained agreement from the publishers to meet.

McGowan presumably was acting on a mandate from some 300 engravers who overrode their leadership Wednesday night and turned down the terms by a vote of 191-111.

Publishers are on record as unwilling to go beyond a $12.63 a week two-year contract package accepted by other unions, including printers whose Dec. 8 strike sparked the newspaper shutdown.

For the engravers, the proposed pact provided a $6.50 increase in wages and fringe benefits the first year and $6.13 the second. The fringe benefits included a cut in the 36½-hour work week to 35 hours—but only for the overnight shift and in the second year of the contract.

The rank and file's chief dissatisfaction concerned their demand for a 35-hour week at once on all shifts.

The engravers' rejection came as nearly 20,000 other newspaper employees prepared to return the eight dailies to the streets.

The ITU printers, who settled their strike last Sunday, pledged to maintain their picket lines until the engravers also settled. The engravers struck March 18, when the shutdown was 14 weeks old.

Incident Brings More Tension in Cuba Crisis

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy called the executive committee of the National Security Council into session today amid a new wave of tension over Cuba.

The inner strategy group, formed during last fall's Cuban crisis, was faced with these developments at its noon meeting:

1. Thursday night's report by a U.S. vessel that two unidentified jet planes shot at it in international waters off Cuba's north coast. The 4,600-ton ship, the Floridian, unhurt, sailed on toward Miami under U.S. air escort.

2. The withdrawal of Soviet soldiers from Cuba, which the United States deems disappointingly slow. Latest U.S. estimates place 13,000 to 14,000 Soviet military personnel still on the island.

3. Hit-and-run raids by anti-Castro exiles, which Washington fears could make the Caribbean situation worse.

Word of the attack on the Floridian was announced by the State Department Thursday night.

It said the U.S. Coast Guard reported receiving a message from the U.S. motor ship—on route from San Juan, Puerto Rico, to Miami—that at about 6:05 p.m. "two unidentified jet aircraft had fired bursts across the Floridian's bow and stern without striking the ship."

Beyond this, Washington authorities had few details.

Last month two MIG jets with Cuban markings fired on a U.S. shrimp boat, the Ala, while it was drifting, its motors out of commission, in the Florida Straits about 60 miles off the Cuban coast.

The United States vigorously protested the attack and Kennedy ordered the Defense Department to make sure that "action will be taken against any vessel or aircraft which executes an attack against a vessel or aircraft of the United States over international waters in the Caribbean."

The Castro regime denied its planes had fired on the shrimp boat, which was not flying a flag.

On the Soviet troops question, U.S. sources said several hundred more Soviet personnel have been observed leaving Cuba since Kennedy estimated March 21 that 3,000 troops had been pulled out. Some 400 were reported to have steamed from Cuba aboard the Soviet liner Balika last weekend.

With the earlier estimate of Soviet military strength in Cuba at 17,000, the withdrawals would lower the number left to less than 14,000. This is a slower withdrawal.

at rate for and Washington had hoped yet knew it was not Soviet Union sent back to the dieters or technician combat soldier.

Kennedy indicated that he would have a clear-cut policy by the Soviet withdrawal. Presumably this was what to be taken up by the 16 to strategy group—hold the session since Feb. 5—Andrew Hatcher, assistant press secretary, declined to say in advance what the group would consider.

Administration authorities also showed rising concern over the free lance raids by Cuban refugees. Reports from Miami Thursday said two anti-Castro groups, Alpha 66 and the Second National Front of Escambray, are preparing still another assault.

Two Soviet ships in Cuban harbors were attacked by anti-Castro raiders March 18 and 26. The U.S. government has officially condemned the forays as ineffective, irresponsible and tending only to strengthen the Communist grip on Cuba.

While the Kennedy administration tended to look the other way when such attacks have been made in the past, authorities said the situation is different now that the Soviets have become so heavily involved in Cuba. They said the raids could have the unwanted effect of stiffening Soviet intentions to stay on in Cuba.

at rate than Washington had hoped for and authorities said it is not yet known here what kind of personnel have been sent back to the Soviet Union—whether combat soldiers or technicians.

Kennedy indicated that by the end of March the U.S. government would have a clearer idea of what the Soviet withdrawal amounts to. Presumably this was one matter to be taken up by the White House strategy group—holding its first session since Feb. 5—although Andrew Hatcher, assistant presidential press secretary, declined to say in advance what the group would consider.

Administration authorities also showed rising concern over the free lance raids by Cuban refugees. Reports from Miami Thursday said two anti-Castro groups, Alpha 66 and the Second National Front of Escambray, are preparing still another assault.

Two Soviet ships in Cuban harbors were attacked by anti-Castro raiders March 18 and 26. The U.S. government has officially condemned the forays as ineffective, irresponsible and tending only to strengthen the Communist grip on Cuba.

While the Kennedy administration tended to look the other way when such attacks have been made in the past, authorities said the situation is different now that the Soviets have become so heavily involved in Cuba. They said the raids could have the unwanted effect of stiffening Soviet intentions to stay on in Cuba.

Miss Gayle Berniece McNeal

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McNeal of Paris, Ark. announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Gayle Berniece, to Larry Mac Garner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garner of Spring Hill.

U.S. Strength: American forces for strategic or limited war have been increased across the board, he said. The five-year defense plan he previously outlined to Congress "will more than triple the number of nuclear weapons in our alert forces—the weapons that we could bring to bear against an attacker, literally, within a matter of minutes."

Manpower: "It is inconceivable to me," he said, "that our armed forces would be reduced substantially in the near future."

Disarmament: He said "he doesn't expect any substantial progress toward disarmament, until 'certain of the major issues' between the United States and the Communist bloc are resolved."

On the sportswear scene, fashion folk in the know, are endorsing jumpers, beachcoats and tunic tops as big news. Casual suits are being treated with extra-long jackets in keeping with the new lines. Even swim suits get a skinny look via a long overblouse or low hip belt.

Chapter XXXV
On the 13th day, Nancy's temperature was normal and remained so. Miss Donovan told him this. Then surprisingly, she stepped away from the door and invited him in.

David hesitated to advance. At any sign of irritation on Nancy's part, or unwillingness to talk with him, he was going to turn and run. "Nancy!" he said experimentally, and she whispered, "Davey," on the same breath.

He advanced quietly, afraid that any large movement might break her in two. She was so fragile. Her eyes were larger than her face, her skin transparent. David sat down crosslegged on the floor, beside her, and that brought his face to the level of her head. She would not have to strain to look up to him or turn. He kissed her hand, which was white and thin.

"Don't you ever get sick again, Nancy. You're all I have."

"I've been waiting for you, Davey, ever since I've been out of oxygen. But I knew you were too busy."

"You said I wasn't to come, Davey."

"Did I? Oh, Davey, I didn't mean it, I didn't know what I was saying. I wanted you." She felt that he was drinking her in, actually absorbing her with his strength, and that he would give her back to herself, refreshed and re-energized, with a new strong body.

"I hoped you didn't mean it, Nancy. But I

Honeymoon Purse at Oaklawn

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The $4,000 Honeymoon Purse will be the "money" event at Oaklawn Park today, but the sentimental feature for horsemen and others long associated with the track will be the $2,700 Louis S. Meen Purse.

Carded as the eighth race, usually reserved for the top event, the Louis S. Meen will honor the memory of a Daily Racing Form staff member for whom it is named.

Meen was assigned to every Oaklawn Park meeting from 1934 through 1962. He died during the fall meeting at Sportsman's Park in Chicago.

A full field has been named for the mile and 70-yard Meen, an optional claiming event.

Heading the band is Mrs. Frank E. Brown's Pappy Cool, who has been finishing close up.

Top weight in the group is C. E. Gibson's Honest Crusade with 122 pounds. Other chief threats are Quisenberry and Davis' Watauga and J. W. Buchanan's Whirling. All three have won at this meeting.

Others entered are Blue Supreme, Royal Opening, Jim Lynn, Pious Fleet, Kirks Pride, Alisto, Regalado II and a W. Hal Bishop entry composed of Beaugida and Ace Flush, the latter an also-eligible.

The Augean Stable's Kitch's Joy may prevail as favorite for the Honeymoon, a 6-furlong allowance dash. The mare faces keen competition in Dodge Me, Nodossaria and Sea Nurse.

Others entered are Baifu, Nark Song and Manie Blue.

Joseph W. Buchanan's Maidens Love sped to her fifth consecutive victory Thursday, scoring over nine rivals in a driving finish of the $3,500 feature purse.

Worthington Hurls Redlegs Over Yankees

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Not even Allan Worthington would deny that for a pitcher whose record shows 33 victories in seven seasons, Allan Worthington has had a stand-out major league career.

Ten years ago he stood out on the mound, standing the batters on their ears, pitching shutouts in his first two major league games. Two years ago he strode out of the Chicago White Sox camp by way of protesting sign-stealing methods he considered unethical.

Now, at 34, Worthington is back with Cincinnati, trying to resume where he started. He made a strong pitch for a job Thursday, limiting the New York Yankees to one hit in seven innings as the Reds won the exhibition at Fort Lauderdale, 3-2 in 11 innings.

Worthington broke in with the New York Giants in 1953, pitching a two-hit shutout against Philadelphia and following with a four-hit shutout against the Brooklyn Dodgers. He never again was that effective, posting a winning record only in 1958 when he was 11-7 for the Giants.

Two shutouts were posted in other games. Ernie Broglio and Diomedes Olivo each allowed Milwaukee one hit in a 3-0 St. Louis triumph at West Palm Beach, and Harvey Haddix and Tommy Sisk combined for a four-hit job as Pittsburgh blanked Baltimore 6-0 at Miami.

Minnesota edged Kansas City 3-2 at Bradenton, the Los Angeles Angels nipped Cleveland 4-3 at Palm Springs, Washington defeated

Haug's Solabar. The John E. Crain Estate's Miss Susan finished third, 1 1/2 lengths farther back.

Maidens Love drew clear at the eighth pole, but had to exert her best effort to outgame Solabar. She was timed for the six furlongs of fast track in 1:11 3/5 and paid $9.80, $4.40 and $3 to backers in a crowd of 8,793.

Porker Relays Attract Over 300 Athletes

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The 12th annual running of the Arkansas Relays opens here Saturday with at least 10 records expected to fall to track and field powers.

Over 300 track men from 12 schools in two divisions are expected to converge on the University of Arkansas campus. There are 22 records in the meet book. No team trophies are given.

Southern Illinois is expected to be a power in the meet, bringing NCAA All-Americans Jim Dupree, Bill Cornell and Bryan Turner to try for records in the two and four-mile relays and distance medley.

Competing in the relays besides the host team and Illinois are Drake, Emporia State of Kansas, Kansas State, The University of Minnesota, University of Missouri, Oklahoma City University, Oklahoma State, Pittsburg State and Wichita College in the university division.

Entries in the lower division are Hutchinson (Kan.) Junior College, Chanute (Kan.) Junior College, Coffeyville (Kan.) Junior College and freshmen from Drake, Illinois, Tulsa, Pittsburg State, Emporia, Wichita, Oklahoma City and Arkansas.

Kansas has two men, Ken Winters and Steve Rogers, who have topped the meet record of 6 feet 5 1/2 in the high jump by a quarter inch.

The only record held by Arkansas is 2:14 by Tom Oakley in the two-mile run, is likely to be captured by Cornell. He has clocked 4:00.5 in the mile run.

Pat McNeal of Kansas State, Big Eight defending champion in the two-mile event, and Turner are also candidates for the record. Both were national winners in the three-mile run in the NCAA finals.

Arkansas' top distance runner is John Deardorf, who completed the two-mile run in 9:35.3 as a sophomore last year.

The mile relay, 880-yard relay and sprint medley are endangered by Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri cinder men.

Bill Sloerke of Kansas State has tossed the javelin 236 feet 10 inches this year, bettering the meet record of 234 feet even.

Minnesota trackmen are already at Fayetteville practicing for the event, their first outdoor meet of the year.

Preliminary events start at 10 a.m. and finals at 1 p.m.

An eastward moving front is expected to dump showers on the area Friday night and bring cooler air. If it passes on schedule fair weather is predicted for Saturday.

Kneece Leads in Azalea Meet

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Harold Kneece, Aiken, S.C. golf professional, moved into the second round of the $20,000 Azalea Open Golf Tournament today with a one-stroke lead over Jack Fleck and Gene Littler, each a former U.S. Open champion.

Kneece was one of the early birds in the field of 160 Thursday and he had to start his round on the 10th tee.

He shot seven birdies and one bogey over the 6,700-yard Cape Fear Country Club course and his 34-32 round withstood the onslaught of the field for some four hours. The 5-foot-7, 150-pounder won $500 of the sponsors' money for the best round of the day.

HOW TO GIVE GRANDSON STATUS By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: How can I go about adopting my five-year-old grandson? He was born in Canada, his father is an American and his mother, my daughter, Irish. She never married though the father of her child has been married several times.

The little boy will soon be attending school and we want to give him a name. If my husband and I can adopt him he wouldn't have to change the name because he goes under his mother's name. Should I die, she could have him back.

There are several adopted children living on our road and they all seem to be happy and well-adjusted. My husband is an American citizen but I've not yet started to fill out the papers cause I'm scared I shall forget the answers when being questioned. — Bewildered Parent.

Dear Bewildered: I phoned adoption agencies on your behalf. All came up with the same answer, "Consult a lawyer." Before doing so, I suggest you write The Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., for the seven fact sheets on procedures for adopting a child, which the U.S. Government publishes. The titles of these reports are: "When You Adopt a Child," "The Physician's Part in Adoption," "The Social Worker's Part in Adoption," "The

Dear Helen: Here's a poser for you: My husband, to whom I've been married six years, is in the army and during his absence, his brother and I have fallen madly in love. It's driving everybody concerned nuts.

Whereabouts of Bedault Secret

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Portuguese police said today the whereabouts of former French Premier Georges Bidault will remain secret until he leaves Portugal.

Bidault, a leader in the underground fight to overthrow President Charles de Gaulle, slipped into Portugal with a secretary from West Germany Tuesday. The government refused to let them stay because they entered under false names.

After questioning Wednesday, Bidault and his aide were allowed to choose their destination. It is believed they will go to South America.

Many Would Abolish Boxing

By MURRAY ROSE Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Another death in the ring and cries of "abolish boxing" are being trumpeted around the world.

The biggest tears are shed by men who don't have to worry about where the next meal is coming from and whether there will be a roof over their heads, or whether there will be heat to keep their kids from freezing.

Really want to abolish boxing? Easy, get rid of the slums; end the recurring depressions when a man will sell his soul for work to feed his starving family; stamp out the prejudice that makes it so hard for a person with the wrong color skin, religion or accent to get an even break in the world's rat race.

Sure, shed your tears—and rightly—for the death of Davey Moore. No one condones the loss of even one life if it can be prevented.

But first go to the slums in your own city, in Latin America. Go to the Far East and see the human derelicts dying on the streets because they never had a chance. Shed your tears for them.

Then wipe out this poverty, sickness, misery and hunger. Until that's done go to Dick Tiger, Fighting Harada, Battling Torres, Pone Kingpetch, Eder Jofre, Carlos Ortiz, Floyd Patterson, Sonny Liston, Barney Ross, Carmen Basilio, Rocky Graziano, Rocky Marciano, Joe Louis, Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney and the kids in the gyms of America.

Mexico, Japan, Puerto Rico, South America, Africa and Europe and ask them whether they want boxing abolished.

Why do men enter the ring? To most it's the only way out of the depths, the fastest way to the top and a hope to be somebody; a chance to take their families out of the grinding the streets, if more parents communicated with their children as one friend would to another.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

More Strikes Plague French

PARIS (AP)—French electrical workers staged a series of brief surprise strikes today, stalling Paris subways and suburban trains during the rush hour and leaving many commuters stranded. Lights blinked off in various parts of the capital.

The electrical workers said they will shut off the current at intermittent intervals during the next week. Gas company workers also are expected to strike, lowering pressure in the mains.

A walkout of the nation's 170,000 coal miners moved into its 28th day with no sign of a break. Workers in the state-run industries want higher wages, shorter hours, longer vacations and other benefits.

poverty; a chance to hold their heads high.

The average guy takes more chances playing golf on a weekend on a municipal course than any well-conditioned fighter in the ring. The boxer knows what to expect. Those flying white balls can come at you from every side while you're trying to line up a putt.

The do-gooders say killing is the object of boxing. Baloney. It would have been wiped out years ago if that was the case.

Pick out a sport where the opponents are more friendly before and after a match than boxing. You can't do it.

Sure boxing has its faults, no question about it. So has society. You don't kill a man when he's sick.
